Day 2: Saturday, December 6, 2025 Washington, D.C. A picture-perfect day in D.C. starts at the White House Visitor Center, seeing artifacts from the White House collection. Take a tour of D.C.'s world-famous memorials and monuments, including the National World War II Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, Korean War Veterans Memorial, and Vietnam Veterans Memorial. Uncover treasures of the Smithsonian Institution with free time to visit any of the museums surrounding the National Mall – perhaps you'll take one small step into space exploration at the National Air and Space Museum, or explore facets of the nation's story at the National Museum of American History. This evening, gather with your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner at a local restaurant followed by a twilight tour to see more of the capital's iconic marble and granite monuments. (B, D)

Day 3: Sunday, December 7, 2025 Washington, D.C. - Arlington, VA - White Sulphur Springs, WV This morning, visit Arlington National Cemetery. A narrated tour takes you to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the Kennedy gravesites. This afternoon, make a stop at historical Front Royal for some free time before traveling through the beautiful mountains of West Virginia to White Sulphur Springs, arriving at The Greenbrier, the world-class resort that's been welcoming guests since 1778. Set off on a horse-drawn sleigh ride,* relishing the classic holiday atmosphere. This evening, dine amid the grandeur of this historic resort. (B, D)

Day 4: Monday, December 8, 2025 The Greenbrier Resort With a storied past to explore and every resort luxury available to you, it's time to enjoy all The Greenbrier has to offer. This is a place steeped in history, from its earliest days when its natural mineral springs drew guests to "take the waters," to its long-established status as an elite retreat, where five sitting presidents had already stayed before the Civil War. Imagine these same grounds, repurposed by the U.S. government as well as the army during periods of war over the centuries. Take an introductory tour of the vast property before continuing on a guided tour of the formerly classified government bunker built under the West Virginia Wing in the 1950s. The rest of the day is yours to spend as you please throughout the resort. Fill it with relaxing pastimes such as croquet, horseback riding, swimming, or shopping, enjoy a traditional afternoon tea, or try your luck at the Greenbrier Casino Club. Enjoy dining at the resort once again this evening. (B, D)

Experience It! Colonial Williamsburg

Williamsburg (originally Middle Plantation) was established to be the capital of the Colony of Virginia in 1699. As threats of enemy attack closed in during the Revolutionary War, the capital was moved inland to Richmond, where it would remain. After the Revolution, no longer the seat of the government, Williamsburg fell into decline through the years. It wasn't until the 1900s that efforts began to restore the 18th century town and preserve its history. In 1932, the Raleigh Tavern first opened as a public exhibition building. Today, Colonial Williamsburg is the world's largest living history museum with its 301 acres featuring restored and recreated historic buildings and taverns, and two world-class art museums.
